MARSHALL'S GRAND CANVASS. Ill Be Triumphantly Elected-Fears

ce of the Richmond Dispatch.] espondence fu's CEREK, RUSSELL COUNTY, VA., October our correspondent has just returned to lace with the Hon, James W. Marshall place with the Hon. James W. Marshall a light canvass in Buchanan county. It gailant standard-bearer spoke to an impact crowd at Grundy, the county-seat, on stay lest. It was said by good and competitudes that it was the largest assemblage of sever gathered together in the county. It was the largest assemblage of a speech, which was applauded to the echopresentation of the issues of the canvasse unanswerable, and at his conclusion several mineat Republicans assured him of their riy support. This county has been Republe by a small majority, but there is no questout that it will give the Democratic ticket a desome majority.

mon but that it will give the Democratic ticket a handsome majority.

On the next day our candidate addressed a large crowd at Hurricane, in that contry, and came on that night to this place, where he addressed the Democratic club and a large crowd of people from the surrounding country. He was introduced to our people here by W. J. Kendrick in a neat and forcible speech. He was met acre by many prominent Democrate, among them our estimable countryman, Mr. Henry Stuart, who is doing his whole duty in this race. This precinct will do better for our party than for years past. Our gallant bominee has done his duty—his whole duty—in the canvass and has spoken every day during this canvase. He has had but little help as yet, and his powers of endurance have been wonderful. He spoke twice yesterday and rode forty miles on horseback. He will speak every day until November 7th. He is the right man in this canvass and has made a grand impression upon the masses. He will be triumbantly elected unlers ever-confidence will keep Democrats from the polls. Stir them up, Mr. Editor, in your columns on this line.

No man has made a more offective canvass than Marshall has in this district this yoar.

MARSHAL CLARKE A SURPRISE. pick Wise's Friends Say Mahone Took an Undne Advantage of Him.

dence of the Richmond Dispatch. PETERSBURG, VA., October 21.—The appol ment of Mr. C. C. Clarko, of this city, as United States marchal for the Eastern District of Vir-ginia was a genuine surprise to the Republicans of the anti-Mahone faction, who had been led to he anti-Mahone faction, who had been led to leve that the ad interior appointment by ex-Justice Fuller of Judge Thomas S. Atkins, Richmond, to the position would preclude any ther action in the premises until after the stion. The anti-Mahone element had de-ed upon Richard Wise as their man for the all Republican differences in the party in the Peninsular counties.

Mr. Wise's triends claim that an unfair advantage was taken by General Mahone in this natiter and their disappointment and nortification is not concealed. On the other hand it is asserted that the appointment was made very willingly at General Mahone's request, the only question asked being whom he wanted. The commission was made out at once for Mr. Clarke. Mr. Clarke, the new matchal, is a well-known citizen of Petersburg, and it is believed the will make a fair and honest official.

It is believed that Marshal Clarke will establish his headquarters in Petersburg, and it is intimated that he will make some changes in his deputies, one of whom it is believed will be Mr. Frank K. Clements, of this city.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

PRIMERRURG, October 21.—A Republican raily was held to-night at Langston's Hall, nine tenths of the crowd being negroes. All of the speakers were colored, and their main effort was to convince the negroes that their duty was to wote with any party to defeat the Democrats. The meeting at one time looked like a regular Third-party gathering, but when one of the speakers referred to Mr. Gilliam as running for Congress outside of the Republican party and in direct opposition to the commands of the mational committee, and therefore not deserving Republican votes, there were such lusty and prolonged cheers for Gilliam and Langston that the meeting was abruptly closed in confusion.

become the Aix-los-Bains of the South next summer, and as a sanitarium and pleasure resort the watering-place will stand among the foremest in the State. Since the completion of the branch line of the Chesapeake and Ohlo road, which rous from Covington to the springs, the tacilities for reaching the resort have been greatly increased and the place has been considerably improved in every respect. The Chesapeake and Ohlo raliway is a large stockholder in the springs, and in addition to this several of the leading capitalists of New York and the Old Dominion have thousands of dollars invested in the scheme. Among the firms and persons holding shares are Morton, Bliss & Co., Draxell, Morgan & Co., Brown Brothers & Co., William K. Vanderbilt, Abram S. Hewitt, mayor of New York, and M. E. Ingalls. The latter has $100,000 worth of stock.

A few days ago Mr. Decatur Axtell, one of the vice-presidents of the Chesapeake and Ohlo, awarded contracts for obtages and buildines to be erected at the springs, which will increase its capacity to accommodate guests by 150 rooms. Allogether $60,000 worth of work will be done in addition to the improvements just completed or now in progress. Several prominent railroad men, and others in addition to this, will ectoprize cottages. Among these are Mr. Ingalis, and Mr. E. F. Osborne. The latter is secretary of the "Big Four railroad."

The work of improvement will be completed by next June, and as the firms and capitalists interested in the springs are men of national reputation the season will open with a large crowd of guests and a brilliant company.
